

Where can I go for support?

We all need some extra support sometimes. Whether you are on campus or learning remotely, there is a significant GGS network you can reach out to when you need help with your learning or wellbeing.

Learning Coach:

Your Learning Coach provides daily support as you set goals and priorities for your learning and wellbeing.

Head of House:

Your Head of House is available as a support whether you are on campus or at home and they work with your Learning Coach to ensure you are on track.

House Tutors:

If you are on campus, your House Tutor is there to support your day-to-day needs in house.

Inclusive Learning:

The inclusive learning team provide an extra layer of support if you need help with your learning. Contact Ms Spencer by email DSpencer@ggs.vic.edu.au.

Chaplains:

Our chaplains provide pastoral care and guidance, contact Chappie by email glingard@ggs.vic.edu.au.

Psychological Counselling Services:

We have a number of counsellors who are available when you need to talk. You can schedule a confidential appointment by email smcintosh@ggs.vic.edu.au.

Kennedy Health Centre:

You can also make an appointment to see a nurse or a doctor at our Kennedy Health Centre. You can schedule a confidential appointment by phone on 5273 9302 or by email kennedym@ggs.vic.edu.au.

Wellbeing Resources:

There are a range of wellbeing resources available on the portal. Including mental health fact sheets, counselling information, suggested wellbeing strategies and tips for supporting friends who are experiencing challenges. www.ggs.vic.edu.au/wellbeing-resources
