Statement re: MA Services Group

Background:

As part of an ongoing investigation by The Age newspaper, security contractor MA Services Group has been accused of serious misconduct, including allegations of breaching workers' rights, tax evasion and sexual harassment.

Statement from Geelong Grammar School:

"The School responded immediately to concerns raised regarding MA Services Group and launched its own inquiry on Friday 28 November.

Whilst MA Services has categorically denied any wrongdoing, the School continues to review the working arrangements of MA Services staff located at our Corio Campus, as well as conducting regular wellbeing checks with these staff, who have expressed their support for the working conditions at our School.

The School's Safeguarding and Legal Services team is reviewing the School's contractual arrangements with MA Services Group, inclusive of considering future alternative security arrangements.

Geelong Grammar School condemns any form of harassment, abuse, or behaviour that compromises the safety, dignity, and wellbeing of individuals. Such conduct is completely unacceptable and in direct opposition to our School's values and culture."
